

OUR ENTIRE STOCK OF This Season's Spring and Summer Clothing To Be Sold at Sacrifice Prices ...ON ACCOUNT OF... CONSOLIDATION

WITH TAYLOR & BROWN CO., Inc.

This rare circumstance makes it possible for you to buy Hand-Tailored Clothing, High-Grade Furnishings and Hats at Sensational Prices. The stock is new and of the latest styles, and all sizes are here for your selection.

CONSOLIDATION PRICES

$40.00 Suits	- - - - -	Consolidation Price	$30.00
$35.00 Suits	- - - - -	Consolidation Price	$25.00
$32.50, $30.00, $27.50, $25.00 Suits	- - - - -	Consolidation Price	$20.00
$20.00 Suits	- - - - -	Consolidation Price	$15.00
$15.00 Suits	- - - - -	Consolidation Price	$10.00

NOTE.—What is left of our winter stock of Suits and Overcoats will go in this Consolidation Sale at prices Below Cost. A prudent buyer will secure some great bargains.

MEN'S FURNISHING GOODS AND HATS

$5.00 Derbies	- - - - -	Consolidation Price	$3.50	$2.50 and $2.00 Pajamas	- - - - -	Consolidation Price	$1.65
$5.00 Soft Hats	- - - - -	Consolidation Price	$3.50	50c Neckwear	- - - - -	Consolidation Price	35c
$2.00 Shirts	- - - - -	Consolidation Price	$1.65	50c Half-Hose	- - - - -	Consolidation Price	35c

All other Furnishings at proportionately low prices.

DILLARD & HARTY, Inc.

Tenth and Main Streets.

Farmville Social News.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Farmville, Va., April 30.—Mrs. C. R. Morton has returned to her home in this town, after a pleasant visit to her daughter, Mrs. G. G. Gooch, of Roanoke.
Dr. Armistead, of Roanoke, came down to this place one day during the week to see his sister, Mrs. Guernsey, who has been on the sick list.
Captain S. W. Paulett has returned from his attendance upon the Confederate reunion at Mobile. He has not missed one of these gatherings for a number of years.
The summer normal will open here on the 28th of June, and close on July 27. The outlook for a large attendance is very encouraging to the management.
Miss Frankie McKinney has gone to Hampton to be present at the Elam-Schmaltz marriage, which takes place next Monday.
Dr. Kerlin gave a talk before the Normal School student body on Monday, on "The Life and Character of the Late Mark Twain." Those who heard him enjoyed a rich literary treat.
Miss Mary Tucker has returned from a visit to friends at Oliveville.
A number of members from Acca Temple, Richmond, will visit Farmville next Friday evening, and cause some of the local residents to tread the burning sands.
Mrs. A. C. Osburn, Jr., has left the hospital in Richmond, and is now at her old home in Cumberland, resting and regaining her strength.
The anniversary sermon to the Lodge of Odd-Fellows will be preached tomorrow night at the Episcopal Church by Rev. Dudley Bookher, the rector.
B. J. Worsham, who has been visiting his son, Mettawer Worsham, of Atlanta, Ga., has returned to his Prince Edward home.
A musical treat is in store for the Farmville people, in the concert to be given at the Normal School auditorium on next Thursday evening. The leading parts of the program are to be given by Mrs. Harry Price, of Annapolis, Md., whose voice so delighted all who heard her when she last visited Farmville. Miss Adams, of Baltimore, will also contribute to the concert, her rich contralto voice. These women will be assisted by local talent, of which this town is bountifully supplied.

On Wednesday afternoon Miss Mary Boogher entertained a number of her young friends at the rectory, the occasion being her birthday.
Crewe Social News.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Crewe, Va., April 30.—The public schools closed Friday with interesting exercises, in which the pupils did credit to their respective teachers. There were only three full graduates. Misses Alice Adams, Jennie Cheatham and Aubrey Wilson.
Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Farley attended the Eagles' banquet in Roanoke Monday night.
Henderson Fitzgerald, of Buckingham county, is visiting his nephew, John H. Fitzgerald.
Miss Sallie Dickinson, of Worsham, recently visited her cousin, Mrs. Rosa Lewis.
Mrs. Gracie Burton spent the past week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Goolbsy, of Roanoke.
William D. Rice, of Brookneal, spent a short time with his daughter, Mrs. Horace Anderson, the past week.
Frank Sheffield has returned from New York.
Misses Esther and Maggie Elliott are visiting relatives in Cincinnati and Portsmouth, O. Bluefield, W. Va., and Roanoke and Appomattox.
Mrs. James Armistead of Forest is visiting her sister, Mrs. Ernest Morton.
Mrs. E. K. Zirkle, of Norfolk, is visiting her parents, Dr. and Mrs. D. W. Gillis.
Miss Sallie Leva, of Lunenburg, is visiting her cousin, Mrs. Darrell Saunders.
Rev. W. W. Bain returned from Richmond the past week, bringing Mrs. Bain and her sister, Miss Sallie Davis, with them. They are at home to their friends in the manse, on Tennessee Avenue.

Mrs. Nannie Morton and daughter, Miss Carrie Morton, returned to Farmville Saturday after a stay of some length with Mesdames Nicholson and W. P. Watkins.
Mrs. John Day is spending some time with Mrs. Lew Jones.
Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Gillis, who have been visiting Dr. and Mrs. D. W. Gillis, left for their home in Portsmouth, O., Saturday.
Howardsville Social News.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Howardsville, Va., April 30.—Miss Sally P. Brady gave a delightful bridge party Tuesday afternoon in honor of Miss Dorothy Wingfield, of Lynchburg. After a very interesting game of bridge, delicious refreshments were served. The other guests present were Mrs. R. V. Shanklin, of Gary, W. Va.; Mrs. Henry Morrell, of Cincinnati; Misses Louise, Mildred and Fannie Horsley, of Warminster; Mrs. T. M. Logan, Mrs. Douglas Forsythe, Mrs. Charles McCulloch, Mrs. Leslie Blair, Misses Courtney Irving, Mary Scott, Margaret Gliner and Lilla Hancock.
Mrs. Charles McCulloch entertained at bridge Saturday afternoon.
Mrs. Jane Blair, who has been spending the winter in Florida, returned home last week, accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Matthews, of Richmond.
Misses Fannie Hancock, of Charlottesville, and Dorothy Wingfield, of Lynchburg, are guests at "Locust Hill."
Mrs. T. M. Logan, after spending the winter in New York, has returned to her beautiful home, "Aikona."
Miss Florence Warwick, of New Haven, who has been the guest of Mrs. Scott, at "Monticola," left for Richmond Saturday.
Ludwell H. Gilmore, of Philadelphia, visited his home here last week.
Miss Elizabeth Dives, of "Riverside," was the guest of Mrs. Leslie Blair last week.
Misses Mary Scott and Sally Brady spent several days with friends near Scottsville last week, and attended the Presbytery.

The Rev. Allen Christian held services here Sunday, and his many friends were delighted to hear the announcement that he would remain in charge of this group of churches another year.
Malvern Hill Social News.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Malvern Hill, April 30.—Mrs. T. B. Harrison and daughter, Miss Emily, of "Bay View," have gone to Petersburg to attend the Taylor-Gill wedding. Miss Harrison will attend a number of social functions given in honor of the bride.
Mrs. Julia J. Trux, who met with a very severe fall while the guest of Gardiner Tyler, several weeks ago, and who has since been staying at "Sherwood Forest," has recovered sufficiently to return to her home at Sturgeon Point.
Mrs. H. S. Saunders, of "Upper Shirley," spent Monday in Petersburg.
Charles B. Clark, of "Hardenburg," spent Monday in Richmond.
Onancock Social News.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Onancock, Va., April 30.—Mrs. B. K. Powell is home from a visit to Mrs. R. C. Barnard, of Washington, D. C. Lieutenant William Kings, Seventy-third Virginia Regiment, Norfolk, spent the week-end in town.
John W. Duncan, Jr., returned Monday. Miss Laura Stiff is home from a visit of several weeks to friends in Hampton and Richmond.
The Afternoon Card Club met at the home of Mrs. Oscar L. Powell Wednesday.
Mr. and Mrs. W. Henry Parker, of New York City, are guests of Mr. Parker's parents.
Mrs. T. M. Scott and T. Murray Scott, of Eastville, spent Sunday with Mrs. G. Fred Kelly.
Dr. and Mrs. Louis McLane Tiffany, of Baltimore, are at their home, "Mount Custis," for the spring season.

Misses Martha and Lillian Platt, of Haxleton, Pa., are guests at the home of their brother, A. Paul Platt. Mr. and Mrs. William M. Potts, of Medford, N. J., after a visit of several days to Mrs. Clara Hyatt, have returned to their home.
Mrs. Thomas Pettit and daughter, Miss Alice, spent the week with friends in Laurel, Del.
Miss Willie Evans is with friends in Chesterfield county.
Mrs. Maude Radford Mason, of Chicago, was a guest in "Blenheim" during the week.
Mrs. John P. L. Hopkins, accompanied by Mrs. George Fosque and Mrs. R. L. Hopkins, made a trip to Cape Charles in her auto Tuesday.
Cismont Social News.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Cismont, Va., April 30.—The V. C. U. Club was charmingly entertained on Wednesday last by the vice-president of the club, at the home of W. E. Money. Delicious refreshments, consisting of numerous ices and cakes, were served in a dainty style. The drawing-room was decorated with a variety of cut-flowers, the color scheme being green and white. Those attending were as follows: Miss Elsie Lee Bell, wearing a gown of brown chiffon broadcloth; Miss Helen Money, in blue peap de sole, princess dress; Miss Isabel Money, a suit of green broadcloth; Miss Amalie Money, Copenhagen blue, pongee; Miss Ruth Campbell, chamois red messaline; Miss Ruth Bell, blue Venetian cloth suit; Miss Lucile Bell, gray crepe de chine; Miss Julia LeMoine, blue neuvelling; Miss Fanny Daniel, black broadcloth suit.
Miss Mary Shackelford, who has been suffering for some time with her eyes, is now in the University Hospital.
Mrs. Will Money is visiting Mrs. Alfred Carey, on Third Street, in Richmond.
Miss Elsie Bell is spending a few days in Richmond with Miss Elliott. Services were held at Grace Church last Sunday by Rev. Mr. Colston.

Miss Helen Money and Miss Julia LeMoine left Campbells on Saturday for a short trip West.
Remington Social News.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Remington, Va., April 30.—Miss Emma Willis, of Washington, is now spending some time with relatives here.
Miss Angie Grymes visited friends at Brandy last week.
Dorcie Shepherd, of Richmond, who has been spending some time with his parents, returned on Wednesday.
Miss Mary Humphrey, of Washington, spent Sunday with her father.
Mr. Ashby, of near Warrenton, spent Sunday with his brother here.
Herbert Rouse, of Orange, spent Sunday with his parents.
Miss Shirley and Rosa Rouse visited Culpeper on Saturday.
Miss Della Claypoole was a Warrenton visitor last week.
Mr. and Mrs. Charley Biggers visited friends in Washington Saturday and Sunday.
Miss Marie Davis, who has been spending a few days with Mrs. Burroughs, returned home on Tuesday.
Miss Cecelia Cooker was a Warrenton visitor last week.
Miss Florie Tackett was a Culpeper visitor on Monday.
Bristol Social News.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Bristol, Va., April 30.—Dr. and Mrs. J. T. Hicks returned this week from their winter home on Captiva Island, on the Gulf of Mexico. They spent the winter delightfully in that warm and cheerful climate.
Mrs. Clarence King is entertaining Mrs. M. M. Turner, of Long View, Tex.
Mr. and Mrs. Jere Bunting entertained the women of Emmanuel Episcopal Church, on Tuesday evening. Those assisting in receiving were Miss Margaret Ashworth and Mrs. George Davis. The program consisted of musical numbers by Professor Putnam, Professor Bodell, Miss Caldwell, Mrs. Bennett and Mrs. George Davis. The hostess was assisted by Misses Lassie McNeil, Dawn Lindsay, Willie J. Tompkins and Margaret McAllen.

Hon. Henry S. Kane, former State Senator from Scott, and other counties of Virginia, was the guest of relatives in Bristol this week.
Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Russell and their little son, left Bristol this week for Kansas City, where they expect to reside.
John Caldwell, Jr., of Jefferson City, Tenn., visited his parents here early in the week.
Mrs. Charles Y. Deaderick and little daughter are visiting Bristol relatives, having come here from the National Soldiers' Home, of which Mr. Deaderick is adjutant.
Miss Pauline Cody entertained the Woman's History Club at her home, on Anderson Street, Tuesday afternoon.
Mrs. M. P. Carpio and children went to Knoxville this week to visit Mr. and Mrs. Henry Warren.
Captain and Mrs. John M. Preston, of Seven Mile Ford, visited their daughter, Mrs. Robert Gray, on North Moore Street, early in the week.
Colonel Patrick Hagan, of Dungan, was the guest of his son, Charles F. Hagan, for a day or two this week.
Judge William F. Rhea, of the Virginia Corporation Commission, visited friends here during the week.
Miss Bessie Hurt is at home after a visit to her sister, Mrs. George E. Campbell, at Hampton, Tenn.
Miss Louise St. John is at home after a visit to relatives in Knoxville.
Dr. John R. Dickey and family are expected home from Southern Florida this week.
Weldon Social News.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Weldon, N. C., April 30.—Mrs. C. P. Bourde has returned home from a visit to Emporia.
Mrs. R. H. Latham and little son, Master Reed, left Thursday for Charlottesville, Va., where they will remain until October.